Payment for our services

In good time before the conclusion of each insurance contract, or upon renewal, we will remind you of your right to be informed of the level of remuneration which we receive from underwriters. You are entitled, at any time, to request information regarding any commission which we may have received as a result of placing your insurance business.

We charge you for handling your insurances as follows:

- We will retain any commission earned by ourselves for placement of your business.
- In certain circumstances we may negotiate a placing fee in lieu of commission and the amount will be notified prior to inception all fees are non refundable.
- There are no refunds available on policies after the 14 day “cooling off period” has expired, which is 14 days from the posting of the documents or the inception of the cover whichever is the latter and in your favour.
- For policies cancelled in the first 14 days there is a £56 cancellation fee.

Alterations at renewal will not incur a handling charge if notified prior to production of certificates.

You will receive a quotation which will tell you the total price to be paid, and which identifies any fees, taxes and charges separately from the premium, before your insurance arrangements are concluded.

We also draw your attention to the sections headed ‘Cancellation of insurances’ and ‘Ending your relationship with us’.

Handling money

We act as agents of the insurer in collecting premiums and handling refunds due to clients. Such monies are deemed to be held by the insurer with which your insurance is arranged.

Cancellation of insurances

You should make any request for the cancellation of a policy in writing and any relevant certificate of insurance must be returned to us or to the insurer concerned. No cancellation refund will be allowed outside of the 14 day cooling off period, though refunds may be considered for claims free policies.

In the event of cancellation, charges for our services will apply in accordance with the ‘Payment for our services’ section above.

Ending your relationship with us

Subject to your immediate settlement of any outstanding premiums and fees, you may instruct us to stop acting for you and we will not impose a penalty.

Your instructions must be given in writing and will take effect from the date of receipt.

In circumstances where we feel we cannot continue providing services to you, we will give you a minimum of 7 days notice.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, if our relationship ends, any transactions previously initiated will be completed according to these Terms of Business. You will be liable to pay for any transactions concluded prior to the end of our relationship and we will be entitled to retain fees received for conducting these transactions.

Your responsibilities

You must take all reasonable care to provide complete and accurate with regards to questions we ask. This is particularly important before taking out a policy and at renewal, but it also applies throughout the life of a policy.

You must tell us within 14 days of you becoming aware if any of the information provided by you changes after you purchase your policy.

You should be aware that if the information provided by you is not complete and accurate Insurers may:

Cancel your policy and refuse to pay any claim, or
 Not pay any claim in full, or
 Revise the premium and/or change any excess, or
 Revise the extent of the cover or terms of the insurance.

We recommend that you keep a record (including copies of any letters, faxes or emails) of all the information you provide to us for your future reference. A copy of the completed application form will be supplied to you on request within a period of 3 months after its completion.

It is important that you read all insurance documents issued to you and ensure that you are aware of the cover, limits and other terms that apply. Particular attention must be paid to any warranties and conditions as failure to comply with them could invalidate your policy.

A full policy wording is available on our website and a copy will be emailed to all customers we email documents to.

If you are unsure about any matter, please contact us for guidance.
